

New Titles Sept 2019

Mastering Civility: A Manifesto for the Workplace / Christine Porath

Combining scientific research with fascinating evidence from popular culture and fields such as neuroscience, medicine, and psychology, this book provides managers and employers with a much-needed wake-up call, while also reminding them of what they can do right now to improve the quality of their workplaces.

HF 5549 P67 2016

To Cry a Dry Tear: Hope and Recovery with Schizophrenia / Bill MacPhee

If you ever wondered what goes on in the mind of someone who is out of reality, this is the book that will give you a clear, vivid understanding of schizophrenia. The author has shared many of his original psychiatrist notes and treatment regimen. He has helped thousands of people through his work and will help you understand what you need to know about recovery and life with schizophrenia.

RC 464.M336

Girl, Stop Apologizing: A Shame-Free Plan for Embracing and Achieving Your Goals / Rachel Hollis

Rachel Hollis sounds a wake-up call. She knows that many women have been taught to define themselves in light of other people instead of learning how to own who they are and what they want. With a challenge to women everywhere to stop talking themselves out of their dreams, Hollis identifies the excuses to let go of and the skills to acquire on the path to growth, confidence, and believing in yourself.

BF 637 H59 2019

Handbook of Social Work with Groups / Charles D Garvin

This definitive text has introduced thousands of practitioners to the theory and practice of social work with groups. Leading authorities outline major models of group work and address critical issues in planning, implementing, and evaluating interventions. The Handbook describes applications in all the major practice settings—mental health, prevention, child welfare, substance abuse, health care, aging, corrections, and more—as well as organizational and community settings.

HV 45 H26 2017

Primary Care for the Physical Therapist / William Boissonnault

Specifically designed to address the expanding role of physical therapists in primary care, the second edition provides the information you need to become an effective primary care provider and acquire the communication and differential diagnosis skills, technical expertise, and clinical decision-making ability to meet the challenges of a changing profession with this unparalleled resource.

WB 460 B68 2011

The Mind of the Leader / How to Lead Yourself, Your People and Your Organization for Extraordinary Results / Rasmus Hougaard

Most leaders think they're effective at motivating their employees, but studies show that employees are more disengaged and uninspired than ever. The solution lies not in more management training but in looking within. The authors have conclusively found that three qualities stand out as being foundational for leaders today: mindfulness, selflessness, and compassion.

HD 57.7 H67 2018

Email the Library at sjcglibs@tbh.net if you want one of these books!