Journals

A journal is a collection of articles (like a magazine) that is published regularly. Journals present the most recent research on a specific discipline or field of study, and journal articles are written by experts, for experts.

SJCG Library subscribes to several print and online journals. For a complete listing and to sign up to receive the Table of Contents to your favorite journals, including those listed below, please click here

Canadian Journal of Nursing Leadership, a peer reviewed, quarterly publication from Longwoods, covers politics, policy, theory and innovations that contribute to leadership in nursing administration, practice, teaching and research.

Healthcare Quarterly, a peer reviewed, quarterly publication from Longwoods, recognizes, nurtures and champions excellence in the Canadian healthcare system. Its objective is to document and disseminate leading practices in health service delivery and policy development.

Healthcare Management Forum, the official peer-reviewed journal of the Canadian College of Health Leaders. The journal publishes articles on leading practices related to health leadership and management, including recent research, new technology and professional practices from health leaders' perspectives.

Databases

SJCG Library offers several databases which are accessible from your ZenWorks Application Portal. We offer health, research, point of care and drug databases. Each database is searchable and where you will find references to published literature, including journal and newspaper articles, government and legal publications, patents, reports, and books. The Library also offers a literature search service to all staff. Request a literature search here

Health Business Elite (EBSCO Research Databases) provides comprehensive journal content detailing all aspects of health care administration and other non-clinical aspects of health care management. The database contains full text access to more than 570 journals such as Harvard Business Review, Health Facilities Management, Healthcare Financial Management, Modern Healthcare, International Journal of Healthcare Management and many more.
