Social Work

Social Work is the premier journal of the social work profession and is the official journal of the National Association of Social Workers. The journal is dedicated to improving practice and advancing knowledge in social work and social welfare. Articles yield new insights into established practices, evaluate new techniques and research, examine current social problems, and bring serious critical analysis to bear on problems in the profession.

Counselor

Serving the addiction field since 1975, Counselor, the Magazine for Addiction and Behavioral Health Professionals is the longest running publication in the addiction field and a leading source of practical, how-to information for professionals and the clients they serve. Professionals depend on Counselor to sharpen their clinical skills and fine-tune their critical thinking. Counselor provides the vital components necessary to enhance or create a successful practice and to improve the lives of clients.

The Gerontologist

The Gerontologist, published since 1961, is a journal of The Gerontological Society of America (GSA) that publishes applied, multidisciplinary research and analysis on social issues related to human aging. It informs the broad community of disciplines and professions involved in understanding the aging process and providing care to older people. GSA believes the intersection of research from diverse areas is the best way to achieve the greatest impact and promote healthy aging.

Psychotherapy Networker

For more than four decades, the Psychotherapy Networker magazine has earned a worldwide readership for its incisive, tough-minded coverage of the everyday challenges of clinical practice and the therapeutic innovations shaping the direction of the profession. Written with the practical needs of clinicians in mind, the Networker is the most topical, timely and widely read publication in the psychotherapy community today. Celebrated for its engaging style, it has won just about every award, including the National Magazine Award—the Oscar of the magazine industry
